

Virginia Home for Boys and Girls presents
A DYNAMIC NEW FORUM IN WHICH OUR
GROUPS CAN CONNECT IN 2022

GUEST SPEAKERS

WE'D LOVE TO SHARE OUR STORY WITH YOU AND START A CONVERSATION
ABOUT WORKING TOGETHER TOWARD A BETTER COMMUNITY

We can provide a visit from an experienced, engaging speaker from our team that's relevant to your mission. They can share stories, information, and ultimately possibilities, with your organization either in-person or via Zoom.

MEET YOUR GUIDE TO CHOOSING A SPEAKER FOR:

THIRD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Lionel Bacon

Vice President of Philanthropy

With a degree in Juvenile Justice from VCU, Lionel went on to earn a Master's Degree in Athletic Administration. Lionel's professional career includes serving as Vice President of Community Development for the YMCA and Associate Athletic Director for Development for VCU. Currently Lionel is in charge of developing financial and in-kind resources to sustain VHBG's operating budget. In his spare time, he helps youth with bike repairs on campus and holds spontaneous basketball clinics in our campus gym. He also coaches basketball for Veritas School, competes in Spartan races, and enjoys family life with his wife and three young sons.

To schedule a VHBG guest speaker in-person or via Zoom, email LBacon@vhbg.org, or call 804-270-6566, ext., 1150. We also understand that nothing can offer a better understanding of what we do than seeing us in action. If your group is interested in a campus tour, please let Lionel know.

Virginia Home for Boys and Girls is a nonprofit, 501c(3) organization that has served thousands of children in crisis since 1846. Founded as the Richmond Male Orphan Society in Richmond's Church Hill area, VHBG was originally dedicated to meeting the needs of young boys who had been abandoned by their families. Today, VHBG serves boys and girls from across Virginia with emotional and behavioral health concerns in three core program areas.

