ABOUT VHBG:

Virginia Home for Boys and Girls (VHBG) is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization that has been serving children in crisis since 1846. Nearly 50% of VHBG's budget is supported by philanthropic dollars and community volunteers play a critical role in supporting the organization's needs. Our mission is to help children across Virginia with emotional and behavioral health concerns by facilitating the healing process using a teaching-family approach. The care children receive from our group homes, specialized K-12 school (John G. Wood), and therapeutic resource center restores hope to them and their families who then find the courage to thrive.

PAST SPONSORS:

Anthem Healthkeepers Plus, Bon Secours Health System, DPR Construction, Dr. Lauren Lucas & Associates, Duck Donuts, Gary & Tina Schworm, Hanover Precast, Patient First, Three Monkeys, VHBG Auxiliary, Wawa Foundation.
